NOTIFICATIONS.

No. 272. The 5th November 1875.

At 8. A. M., on November 1st 1875, HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR OF BOMBAY received the visit of HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE in the Durbar Room at Government House, Parell.

Two of His Excellency the Governor's Carriages, containing the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency the Governor, and an Aide-de-Camp to His Excellency, escorted His Highness from his private residence to the Durbar. An escort of Native Cavalry under an European Officer accompanied the deputation. The gentlemen of His Highness' suite followed in His Highness' own carriage in the rear of the escort.

A Salute of 21 Guns was fired from the Battery at Parell on the arrival of His Highness at Government House, and a Guard of Honor presented arms. On alighting from his carriage, the Maharaja was received at the foot of the Stairs by the Chief Secretary to Government, Political Department, who conducted him into the Durbar Room, at the threshold of which His Excellency received His Highness. His Highness was then conducted by His Excellency to a seat on his right hand, and immediately to the right of His Highness were seated the Chief Commissioner, the Guardian and beyond them the suite of His Highness, consisting of his principal Sirdars. On the left of His Excellency the Governor were seated the Chief Secretary and the Under-Secretary, Political Department, the Oriental Translator, and the Personal Staff of His Excellency. The Sirdars were presented to His Excellency by the Chief Commissioner. During the interview the Band played. Pán Soparee were served to His Highness, at the close of the visit, by His Excellency the Governor, and likewise to his attendants, according to their rank, by the Chief Secretary and Under-Secretary.

His Excellency the Governor took leave of His Highness at the same point at which His Excellency received His Highness. On the departure of His Highness, who was conducted by the Chief Secretary, Political Department, to the top of the Grand Staircase, a Salute of 21 Guns was fired, and the Guard of Honor presented arms.

His Highness then returned to his own Residence, and the deputation which escorted him to Government House accompanied him beyond the precincts of Parell, and there took leave. The escort of Horse accompanied His Highness to his own Residence.

No. 273. The 5th November 1875.

On Tuesday 2nd November at 7-30 A. M., HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR OF BOMBAY paid a return visit to HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE, escorted by a Detachment of the Body Guard.

The Chief Secretary, Political Department, the Under-Secretary, Political Department, the Oriental Translator to Government, and His Excellency's Personal Staff accompained the Governor.

At 6-50 A. M., two Principal Officers of the State waited upon the Governor at Parell, and escorted His Excellency to His Highness' Residence, where he was met at the entrance by His Highness the Maharaja.

His Highness then conducted His Excellency into the Durbar Room to a seat on his right hand. Immediately to His Highness' left hand were seated the Chief Commissioner and His Highness' principal attendants. On the right of His Excellency the Governor were seated the Chief Secretary to Government and the Under-Secretary, Political Department, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Oriental Translator to Government, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

Uttur and Pán were given by the Maharaja himself to His Excellency the Governor; and to the Officers present with His Excellency by the Principal Officers of the State. The ceremonies attending His Excellency's arrival were repeated at his departure, and a Salute of 17 Guns were fired on each occasion from the Battery in the Fort. A Guard of Honor was drawn up at the Maharaja's Residence, and presented arms on the arrival and departure of His Excellency the Governor.

A letter from the Secretary to the Government of Bombay, to the Government of India in the Public Works Department, No. 284—E. 1160, dated 2nd July 1875.

RESOLUTION.—In supersession of previous orders on the subject, the Governor General in Council is pleased to resolve that, in future, without the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, no addition to any salary paid from imperial funds shall be made from provincial or local funds or from the income of Wards' Estates, or from any other funds administered by the Government or its officers as trustees. If such addition made from provincial or local funds has the effect of raising the pay of an officer above Rs. 5,000 a year, the sanction of Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India is necessary before the additional allowance can be drawn.

In like manner, the Governor General in Council resolves that any addition to any pay chargeable to provincial funds which, if made from provincial funds, would require the sanction of the Government of India under paragraph 21 of the Resolution No. 3334, dated 14th December 1870, shall require such sanction if made from local funds.

And, without the previous sanction of the Local Government, no addition to any salary paid from provincial revenues shall be made from the income of Wards' Estates or from any other funds administered by the Government or its officers as trustees.

ORDERED, that copies of the above Resolution be forwarded to the Departments of the Government of India, Local Governments and Administrations, Comptroller General, and Accountants General, and Deputy Accountants General in independent charge.
